Teen sentenced to up to life in prison for Stevenson Ranch rape

SAN FERNANDO – A 19-year-old man was sentenced to 43 years to life in state prison today for forcible rape and other charges stemming from the January 2012 sexual assault of a Stevenson Ranch woman.

Deputy District Attorney Julie Kramer said Jerry Moon was sentenced by San Fernando Superior Court Judge Lloyd Nash. The sentence was part of a negotiated settlement when Moon pleaded guilty in December 2012. Moon also must register as a sex offender.

Besides forcible rape, Moon pleaded guilty to other sexual assault charges and admitted that during commission of the crimes, the victim was tied and bound. He also admitted that the sexual assaults occurred during a burglary,

The woman was assaulted after Moon, also from Stevenson Ranch, broke into her home. He was arrested by Sheriff's deputies about a month after the crimes and has remained in custody.

A restitution hearing was scheduled for May 10.
